ARS MARE RS 29 - 1999 Italian sport day-cruiser with Mediterranean spirit Discover this Ars Mare RS 29 from 1999, an 8.40-meter sport motor boat that embodies the excellence of Italian nautical construction. Designed by the prestigious Ars Mare shipyard, this day-cruiser combines dynamic performance, sleek design and remarkable versatility, perfect for coastal navigation and sport fishing. ICONIC ITALIAN DESIGN The Ars Mare RS 29 stands out with its sporty and elegant lines typical of Italian style from the 90s. Its deep V hull ensures excellent seakeeping even in rough conditions. The balanced profile and harmonious proportions give the boat a resolutely sporty and timeless appearance. PROPULSION & PERFORMANCE Powered by 2 FPT DIESEL engines of 250hp each developing 500 horsepower in total, this Ars Mare RS 29 offers dynamic performance and sporty navigation.

FLYBRIDGE CONFIGURATION The Ars Mare RS 29 features a flybridge offering a second elevated helm station, ideal for enjoying panoramic views and navigating in the open air. This configuration adds an extra dimension to the boat, allowing multiple living spaces and optimizing onboard comfort. SPACES & AMENITIES Exterior: The spacious cockpit offers plenty of space for fishing, with rod holders arranged all around. The flybridge has its own comfortable seating. Interior: The interior layout reveals a functional space with 1 berth. The bathroom is equipped with a toilet. Storage is well designed to optimize available space. COMPLETE EQUIPMENT Navigation: Electronics including GPS and depth sounder for safe navigation. Deck Equipment: Electric windlass facilitating anchoring maneuvers, deck shower, swim ladder.

Sport Fishing: Equipped for fishing with 4 rod holders and rest rack, this boat will delight sea fishing enthusiasts. Protection: Cockpit cover, fly cover, complete flybridge upholstery. Tanks & Autonomy: 2 stainless steel tanks of 185 liters each (370 liters total). VERSATILITY & CHARACTER The Ars Mare RS 29 is the perfect boat for sporty day outings with family or friends, sport fishing at sea with dedicated equipment, coastal navigation with the flybridge, or anchorages in Mediterranean coves. This Ars Mare RS 29 represents an excellent opportunity to acquire a versatile Italian sport day-cruiser, ideal for coastal cruising as well as sport fishing. A boat with strong character that has stood the test of time. Available for viewing.
